

Asa Tate, Board Member, President-Elect (for 2019)

Chief Development Officer, Wellspring Family Services

Preferred Pronouns: she/her/hers

Asa Tate is the Director of Philanthropy & Mission Advancement at Make-A-Wish Alaska and Washington overseeing annual, major and planned giving programs. She's an accomplished fundraiser with more than 20 years of non-profit experience at local and national non-profits. She's created and managed a wide variety of fundraising programs and events, appealing to donors of all types in order to diversify revenue and foster long-term sustainability.

Asa's best known for her strategic thinking, leadership, and exceptional ability to create life-long relationships and partnerships that strengthen non-profits and our community. Asa actively volunteers to grow the field of philanthropy; serving as President-Elect for AFP Advancement Northwest, on the Advisory Board of the University of Washington Certificate in Fundraising Management, and as a former Northwest Development Officers Association Board & Executive Committee Member.

Asa is a life-long learner and alumni of Seattle's Leadership Tomorrow – Class of 2015, 2016 Center for Creative Leadership – Leadership Development Program, and a 2002 graduate of United Way of King County's Project LEAD (Leadership Effectiveness And Diversity).