

Elizabeth "Beth" Castleberry, CFRE, Board Member, Immediate Past President
Executive Director, King County Library Foundation

Preferred Pronouns: she/her/hers

Elizabeth "Beth" Castleberry is the Executive Director of the King County Library System Foundation. Prior to joining the KCLS Foundation in 2013, she served for seven years as the Chief Development Officer for Global Partnerships a non-profit impact investor expanding opportunity for people living in poverty. Beth has also held senior positions in fund development with Washington State University, the Seattle Public Library Foundation, and the Seattle Symphony.

Beth is a past-President of AFP Advancement Northwest. She was the founding Board President for the Seattle Animal Shelter Foundation and served as an officer on the Boards of the Northwest Development Officers Association, Seattle Girls' and Spruce Street Schools.

Beth is a graduate of Washington State University and a Certified Fundraising Executive (CFRE). A native of the Pacific Northwest, she enjoys discussing books as a member of the Emerald City Literati, skiing at Stevens Pass, and kayaking on Lake Crabapple. Most evenings you can find her walking along the bluff in Magnolia with her husband Chuck and their rescue dog Clementine.