

Karen Mudd, Board Member, Sponsorship Committee Member

Interim Development Staffing Professional, MD Path, LLC

Preferred Pronouns: she/her/hers

Karen Mudd is an independent nonprofit consultant specializing in providing interim development staffing services. During times of organizational transition, she steps in as chief development officer to lead the team in heightened productivity and sets the stage for a new leader to enter and succeed.

Since 2011, Karen has worked with a diverse array of Puget Sound organizations including Harrison Medical Center Foundation, Women's Funding Alliance, Cornish College of the Arts, Pride Foundation, The Jewish Day School of Metropolitan Seattle and The Jewish Federation of Greater Seattle.

Prior to consulting, Karen served as Executive Director of Equality South Dakota. This followed four years at Big Brothers Big Sisters of America where she held the role of Director of Development. Prior to that, she enjoyed a 14-year tenure at Philadelphia Corporation for Aging, where she was Director of Communications and Legislative Liaison.

Karen currently serves as on the sponsorship committee for AFP Advancement Northwest. She holds a master's degree in public policy from George Washington University and a bachelor's degree from Webster University.

Originally from southern Illinois, Karen now feels at home in the Pacific Northwest during rain and shine. She enjoys gardening, yoga, hiking, kayaking, and traveling. Combining joint passions of friends and food, she loves entertaining with her wife in their home near Seward Park.
