

Libby Singer, Board Member, Co-Chair of Forum on Strategic Fundraising
Advancement Manager, The Bush School

Preferred Pronouns: she/her/hers

Libby Singer is the Assistant Director of Development at The Bush School. She oversees alumni programming, annual giving and donor recognition. Prior to joining Bush, Libby spent nearly four years at the University of Washington School of Public Health. She started her development career at Childhaven a Seattle-based nonprofit that provides healing care to abused, neglected and chemically affected children under 5 years old. She volunteers with the Association of Fundraising Professionals, Advancement NW chapter where she helps produce the two signature events, a two-day conference and an annual luncheon celebration of National Philanthropy Day. Libby holds a BA in History from UW and is currently pursuing her MBA with a focus on leadership at UW Bothell. In her spare time, you can find Libby spending time with friends, crafting and playing volleyball.