

Debra Holland

Debra Holland had a nearly 30 career with Seattle area nonprofit businesses prior to becoming a banker ten years ago. At Columbia Bank, Debra focuses on working with nonprofit business accounts. She is an active community volunteer and chairs the Board of Trustees for Humanities Washington and the Nominating Committee for the Federation of State Humanities Councils. She serves on the Executive Board of the School of Business, Economics and Government at her alma mater, Seattle Pacific University. She was the founder and first president of the Fran Nordstrom Guild of Seattle Children's Hospital. Debra and her husband Chuck are residents of Kingston, WA.