

JOANN MILLS

VICE PRESIDENT

JOANN.MILLS@CAMPBELLCOMPANY.COM

JoAnn returned to consulting with our Seattle team in 2015 after a decade during which she served as Campaign Project Director for Seattle Children's Hospital Foundation's $300 million comprehensive campaign, Senior Director of Development at Group Health Foundation, and Director of an executive coaching firm that focused on accelerating executive leadership performance in both the corporate and nonprofit sectors.

JoAnn brings a wealth of experience to her consulting engagements with non-profits, having been a top-rated "manager of managers" in the corporate sector, a front-line fundraiser, and a principal consultant. She also brings specific expertise in strategy and management for major fundraising campaigns as well as optimizing board engagement and ongoing major gift programs.

JoAnn currently serves on the board of the Wing Luke Museum of the Asian American Experience, having been recruited after providing campaign counsel for the Wing's $24 million capital project. She is a past board member of SeaDoc Society (a program of the School of Veterinary Medicine, Wildlife Health Center, University of California-Davis), and past board chair for the National Development Officers Association (NDOA) and Women's Funding Alliance. JoAnn holds a graduate-level Evidence Based Coaching Certificate from Fielding Graduate University - School of Human and Organizational Development and a Bachelor of Arts in Comparative Religion from University of Washington - Jackson School of International Studies.
